

Art classes in front of the sea

The seashore and the cliffs of Castiglioncello

During the summer students are given the opportunity to take part to some special art sessions in front of the sea on the beautiful coast of Tuscany.

Both Art novices and more expert artists can take advantage of this lesson, during which different techniques (such as pencils, charcoals, water colour, oil) can be used according to each student's specific needs and requests.

These sessions are open to all students who wish to enjoy an outdoor lesson far from the madding crowd in the magic of the seascape. Students enrolled in one of our Art courses are entitled to a special price.

Castiglioncello is a renowned seaside resort, just one hour and half by train from Florence. Its shores are a perfect mixture of cliffs and coves. Its pine woods look over the limpid blue sea.

The village became popular in the sixties when several movie stars (among them Alberto Sordi and Marcello Mastroianni) chose Castiglioncello as their holiday destination. It was here that the film director Dino Risi shot the film "The easy life" (Il Sorpasso) starring Vittorio Gassman and Jean-Louis Trintignant.

Some decades earlier, at the turn of the 20th century, the "Macchiaioli", a group of Italian artists, did much of their painting in Castiglioncello in order to capture outdoors natural light, shade, and colour. Giovanni Fattori, Silvestro Lega and Telemaco Signorini were the most famous representatives of the macchiaioli circle who painted in their works the beautiful coast line near the village.

Art in the Cinque Terre

Amazing en plein air lessons on the beautiful coast of the Five Lands

Throughout the year students are given the opportunity to take part to some special art sessions in front of the sea on the beautiful coast of Le Cinque Terre.

Both Art novices and more expert artists can take advantage of this en plein air lesson, during which different techniques (such as pencils, charcoals, water colour, oil) can be used according to each student's specific needs and requests.

These sessions are open to all students who wish to enjoy an outdoor lesson in front of the beauty of one of the most famous seascapes of the world, while admiring the rugged, steep landscape right up to the cliffs that overlook the sea.

Cinque Terre, "The Five Lands", comprise five villages: Monterosso al Mare, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, and Riomaggiore. The coastline, the five villages, and the surrounding hillsides are all part of the Cinque Terre National Park and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Over the centuries, locals have carefully built terraces on the nearby hills where they created astonishing vineyards. Part of the Cinque Terre's charm is the lack of modern buildings, as if time has stood still. Paths, trains and boats connect the villages, cars cannot reach them from the outside.
